A powerful front-runner who made all to win G1 Hong Kong Cup and G1 Hong Kong Gold Cup at the course & distance this term; became the first horse to go sub two minutes for 2000m at Sha Tin in the latter; lacked spark latest in G2 mile contest when mustered early to gain the lead but wilted in the stretch to last; handles all going.

A leading light out of last year's highly-touted Japanese three-year-old crop; earned his classic wings with a win in the G1 Satsuki Sho (2000m) last April; that gave him a 4 from 5 record; has not struck gold in 5 starts since but has posted high-class efforts; one-paced in pursuit when lost 2nd close home in G1 Osaka Hai (2000m) latest. Best on sound surface. Races handily.

Brilliant but enigmatic galloper; a leading 4yo last term when 2nd in the Hong Kong Derby and APQEII Cup at course and distance; pulled himself up in G3 1800m last June; returned to action in February with smart 4th in G1 Hong Kong Gold Cup (2000m); old antics resurfaced latest in G2 1600m - routed along to keep going after detaching from pack and flew to a close 4th; hold-up runner; no ground worries.

Thereabouts around the top of the pecking order among last year's Japanese classic crop; couldn't match Al Ain's late thrust when 3rd in G1 Satsuki Sho (2000m) last year; just out of frame in Japanese Derby (2400m) and St Leger (3000m); won 2000m allowance race in December & stalked lead for cosy G2 2200m win in January; similar tactic in G1 Osaka Hai (2000m) latest but outpaced in stretch for 6th; races handily; likes fast track.

Looked a superstar in the making with a brilliant last-to-first sweep in the BMW Hong Kong Derby (2000m) latest; that was his first start beyond a mile; previously collected three 1400m handicaps on the bounce, rising from Class 3; lightly-raced and still learning; has been headstrong in the past. Hold-up runner. No ground issues.

Won G1 Queensland Derby (2400m) in 2016; two-time G3 (handicap) winner in Hong Kong at 1800m & 2400m; found wanting in good company both starts at course and distance - 6th in both 2017 Hong Kong Derby and this year's G1 Hong Kong Gold Cup; best local effort 3rd in last season's G1 Champions & Chater Cup (2400m); carried top-weight when close 2nd to Gold Mount in Class 1 1800m handicap at Happy Valley 28 March; usually held up; no going issues but enjoys some give.

Won soft ground 2400m handicap at Royal Ascot pre-import; lacks early toe & has shown consistent form running on late from the rear; two wins this season in lesser grade at 1800m; seems best suited to 2400m; checked early in stretch when solid closer in 2000m G2 in November and again when best local finisher in G1 Hong Kong Vase (2400m); put in his place behind Time Warp in Hong Kong Gold Cup (2000m) in February; no ground issues.

Has developed into an admirably consistent galloper in high-class handicaps; went back-to-back within a four-day span earlier this season - raced handily for 1650m Class 2 & then made all for career peak G3 score; tested in G1 next start but found wanting; two good efforts since; outpaced when boxing on 6th in G2 Chairman's Trophy latest; tactically versatile; best on good going.

Won first two starts last spring before 3rd to Churchill in G1 Irish 2,000 Guineas (1600m); found his feet quickly in Hong Kong; 2nd to subsequent G1-placed Fifty Fifty 2nd start; followed with impressive 2000m Class 2 score; proven among best of this season's 4yos; running-on 4th in Classic Mile; stayed on to close 2nd in Classic Cup (1800m); closed from rear but passed by last-to-first winner Ping Hai Star when 3rd in Derby (2000m) two starts back; no ground worries.
