

Spotlight

A victory at Group 1 level has so far eluded Hot King Prawn, who claimed his second G2 Jockey Club Sprint last month to stamp himself as the local brigade's leading hope. But, he will face off with another grey, Classique Legend, who has arrived in Hong Kong to join the yard of championship leader Caspar Fownes with an exceptional career outlined.

One of the most intriguing international challengers is Singapore speedster Inferno, who has lit up Kranji Racecourse with eight wins from nine starts, including two at SIN G1 level. The Holy Roman Emperor gelding travels to Hong Kong as the international sprinter with the least racing experience.

Also among the international trio of entries is Godolphin's Tower Of London, who travels from Japan as the winner of last year's G1 Sprinters Stakes at Nakayama. Japan is also represented by Danon Smash, who snared second to Gran Alegria in this year's Sprinters Stakes at Nakayama.

Among the local brigade is young gun Computer Patch, a G3 winner for trainer Tony Cruz, as well as 2019 G2 Sprint Cup victor Rattan, who finished a fast-closing third to Hot King Prawn in the Jockey Club Sprint.
