Manning, Kevin

Age: 54. Manning started out with Jim Bolger in 1982 and is married to the trainer's daughter. He was twice Ireland's champion apprentice (1984 & 1987) and became the stable's number one rider in 1993. In 2002 he guided Margarula to G1 Irish Oaks success. His notable G1 wins include the Derby at Epsom in 2008 atop New Approach, on whom he also won the Irish and the English Champion Stakes. That colt was one of five Dewhurst Stakes winners in seven years for Manning and Bolger. The most recent of the quintet, Dawn Approach, went on to win the 2,000 Guineas at Newmarket in 2013. He clinched a first G1 Irish Derby win with Trading Leather that year, too. He has also ridden star runners Finsceal Beo, Teofilo, Lush Lashes, Saoirse Abu and Eva Luna. The most prolific of all was the mare Alexander Goldrun, on whom Manning won five G1s in four countries, including a short-head victory over Bullish Luck in the 2004 Hong Kong Cup. In 2020 and 2021 he added further G1s to his haul with Mac Swiney (2020 Futurity Trophy Stakes) and Poetic Flare (2000 Guineas and St. James's Palace Stakes in 2021). HKIR wins (1): Hong Kong Cup (2004 Alexander Goldrun). Hong Kong wins (as of 28 November): 7

Marquand, Tom

Age: 23. Tom Marquand doesn't come from a racing background but at the age of 12 the decision to get riding lessons led him to pony racing, the British Racing School, and at the age of 15, Arab racing. Next came the biggest step of his career, which saw him undertake an apprenticeship with Richard Hannon Sr. at his Wiltshire yard. The following year he was British Flat racing champion apprentice with 54 wins, and in 2017, he landed a first Group race victory, securing the G3 Dick Poole Fillies' Stakes at Salisbury with Anna Nerium. In 2018 Marquand rode over 100 winners for the first time, and at the end of that year he spent six weeks in Australia riding for trainer John O'Shea. Marquand added two more G3 successes on his return to Europe, including one in France at Saint-Cloud, and another trip to Australia in 2020 produced a G1 double aboard the William Haggas-trained Addeybb in the Ranvet Stakes at Rosehill Gardens and the Queen Elizabeth Stakes at Randwick. His success Down Under garnered him the nickname 'Aussie Tom' from Australians. Last year Marquand landed a first British G1 and Classic victory aboard Galileo Chrome in the St Leger Stakes at Doncaster, before reuniting with Addeybb to claim the Champion Stakes at Ascot on British Champions Day. In 2021 he achieved further success abroad atop Addeybb with an impressive victory in the G1 Queen Elizabeth Stakes in Australia. ### Moreira, Joao

Age: 38. Brazilian sensation Joao Moreira, known as "Magic Man", claimed the LONGINES IJC at his second attempt in 2012. Before arriving in Hong Kong, Moreira notched more than 1000 wins in South America before moving to Asia. He relocated to Singapore in 2009, and, after finishing third in the championship, he proceeded to dominate the Singapore circuit for four years with four consecutive titles in that time. He moved to Hong Kong in October 2013 and was champion jockey for three straight seasons, with record-breaking win totals (145, 168 and 170). Moreira departed for Japan at the end of the 2017/18 season but returned to Hong Kong in December 2018 to ride as stable jockey to John Size, ending that term with 90 wins. In the 2020/21 season he won his fourth championship in Hong Kong, notching a brilliant 157 wins, and was a close second to Zac Purton in last year's LONGINES IJC. HKIR wins (6): Hong Kong Vase (2016 Satono Crown, 2019 Glory Vase), Hong Kong Cup (2014 Designs On Rome), Hong Kong Mile (2014 Able Friend), Hong Kong Sprint (2015 Peniaphobia, 2019 Beat The Clock). Hong Kong wins (as of 28 November): 1,135

Poon, Matthew M F

Age: 28. Matthew Poon joined Hong Kong's race-riding ranks in March 2017. He landed a win on his first race-day but also suffered an injury that side-lined him for three weeks. Upon returning he raced to 20 wins and a reduction to his 10lb claim within 14 fixtures and 112 rides. His second Hong Kong season yielded 35 victories. The HKJC Apprentice Jockeys' School student undertook his overseas training in South Australia, embarking in June 2015, and was based with leading trainer Richard Jolly. His first race ride, a winner, came in October of that year. At the end of his first season, in July, 2016, he was crowned South Australia's Champion Apprentice Jockey with 51 wins. His second season in Adelaide saw him ride 65 winners and at the time of his departure for Hong Kong in March 2017, he was sitting second in the South Australian jockeys championship. Poon commenced his Hong Kong career with an overall record of 117 wins from 862 rides at a rate of 13.57%. His first pattern victory came aboard Faaltless in the SIN G3 Garden City Trophy in Singapore in August, 2017 and he notched a second win in that grade when taking the Jumbo Jet Trophy at Kranji during the Hong Kong off-season in 2018. He also won the G3 Bauhinia Sprint Trophy in 2019 atop Jolly Banner, their association continued in season 2019/20, as Poon partnered the gelding to win the G3 Premier Cup, one of 29 wins for the rider throughout that term. Poon amassed a personal best 37 wins through 2020/21 which included a pair of G3 triumphs aboard Glorious Dragon and Butterfield in the Centenary Vase and Queen Mother Memorial Cup, respectively. HKIR wins: 0 Hong Kong wins (as of 28 November): 165

Purton, Zac

Age: 38. Zac Purton ended Douglas Whyte's 13-season dominance with his first Hong Kong jockeys' championship in 2013/14 (112 wins) and in earning his second title in 2017/18 he halted Joao Moreira's streak at three. Since then, Purton has added a further two titles to his collection and through 2018/19 he tallied a career-high 168 wins, a season in which he also became the second jockey in Hong Kong history to ride 1000 winners and set a new single season prizemoney record of HK$234,989,515. His triumph aboard Exultant in the 2020 QEII Cup meant he became the only rider in history to win every G1 on the Hong Kong calendar. Purton's championship winning streak came to an end in 2020/21 as great rival Joao Moreira reclaimed the title. He did claim a second G1 Hong Kong Cup triumph that term, aboard Normcore for Japan to make him the most successful jockey in HKIR history with nine wins, ending the dead-lock he previously shared Gerald Mosse who has eight wins. That term, he also sealed a second LONGINES International Jockeys' Championship title. So far, Purton has enjoyed a flying start to the 2021/22 season, comfortably sitting at the top of the jockeys' championship. Purton started his career in Brisbane and enjoyed incredible success as an apprentice, winning the premiership there in 2003. Purton moved to Hong Kong in September, 2007 and he boasts a famous Royal Ascot win for Hong Kong aboard the Danny Shum-trained Little Bridge in the 2012 King's Stand Stakes. HKIR wins (9): Hong Kong Vase (2013 Dominant, 2018 Exultant), Hong Kong Cup (2017 Time Warp, 2020 Normcore), Hong Kong Mile (2012 Ambitious Dragon, 2016 Beauty Only, 2018 Beauty Generation), Hong Kong Sprint (2014 & 2016 Aerovelocity). Hong Kong wins (as of 28 November): 1,337

Shinn, Blake

Age: 34. Blake Shinn's father is the late Gerald Shinn, a one-time champion apprentice jockey in Australia. He began his career in Victoria and his first win came at Kilmore in 2003 aboard Clearly Unique. He showed brilliant precocity, winning his first G1, the 2005 Adelaide Cup aboard Demerger, at just 17 years of age when still an apprentice. He made history in the 2004/05 season, becoming the first apprentice to win the Scobie Breasley Medal for excellence in race riding on the Melbourne circuit. Shinn made the move to Sydney to become stable jockey to Gai Waterhouse and in his first year he won the 2007/08 Sydney premiership. He also has the distinction of being one of the youngest Melbourne Cup-winning jockeys, being just 20 when he partnered the Bart Cummings-trained Viewed in 2008. He finished runner-up in the 2017/18 Sydney Jockeys' premiership with 136 wins. Shinn was injured for half of the 2018/19 season due to a serious neck injury sustained in a barrier trial fall but returned to close out that term with 53 wins at a career-high winning strike rate of 21%. He secured his first Group race win in Hong Kong on 20 June, 2021 when partnering Sky Field to claim the G3 Premier Cup at Sha Tin.
