

Jockey Club Youth Football Academy Summit 2023 Factsheet

Organiser The Hong Kong Jockey Club (HKJC)

Partners Manchester United (MU)
The Football Association of Hong Kong, China

Background The Hong Kong Jockey Club has long been committed to local football development, and through football aims to impact society in a positive way. The Jockey Club Youth Football Academy Summit is a collaboration between the Club, Manchester United and the Football Association of Hong Kong, China to encourage youth development, combining cultural exchange, creative inspiration and athletic training. It exposes participants to new people and ideas, widening their horizons. Through this experience, young people gain skills and inspiration as they “Play Together, Learn Together and Train Together”.

After a few years’ hiatus, the Summit is making a comeback this year. The Manchester United Academy U16 Team, along with the Hong Kong, China U18 Representative Team and Hong Kong, China Youth Select Team, will participate in a series of training sessions, friendly matches, cultural activities as well as community service during their visit to Hong Kong.

Two friendly matches will be held at Mong Kok Stadium. As major events of the “Happy Hong Kong” campaign, launched by the HKSAR Government, both matches will include a variety of entertainment features and performances to provide enjoyment and relaxation for residents. Free tickets to the matches will be offered to the public online upon registration.
